Re: U.S. v. Lans, 19 cr 172 (VSB) -- Violation of Supervised Release ("VOSR")

Dear Judge Broderick:

I am counsel for Leroy Lans, the defendant in the above referenced VOSR.

The VOSR is currently scheduled for a status conference on March 3, 2022.

Principally, the specifications in the VOSR arise out Mr. Lans being arrested and indicted in a criminal matter currently pending in New York State Supreme Court, New York County (the "State Case"). It is likely that a resolution of the VOSR will occur following a resolution of the State Case. The next date for the State Case is March 29, 2022. As such, if the conference proceeds on March 3rd, I will be requesting the matter be adjourned to a date following the March 29th court appearance on the State Case.

Based upon the forgoing, and with consent of the Government, and subject to the Court's availability, I respectfully request the VOSR conference be adjourned to April 7, 2022, at 12 p.m.,

Respectfully submitted,

/s/

Jeffrey G. Pittell
